+20 Egypt Design first urban design event taking place at Cairo

Friday May 7, 2010

+20 Egypt Design is a government-funded initiative, in collaboration with DesignPartners, which aims to drive business through creativity and design. The event is a long-term project for the country heading to place Egyptian design and Cairo, a rapidly emerging player on the cultural scene, onto the international design map. It will be held in the renovated area of Cairo's Old City, El Muiz Street in a special atmosphere, between shops, mosques, museums and the three historical houses dedicated to the exhibitions.

The exhibition, curated by the widely appreciated Italian designer, Paola Navone, will narrate the history of a large international, cultivated and open-minded family, through installations in different rooms of three historical Cairo homes. Products showcased will be selected from the best Egyptian design companies, as well as international brands.

Other important cultural initiatives and appointments will enrich the event: the first pop up edition of the DesignLibrary, a series of Design talks where international designers and entrepreneurs will share their experiences.

+20 Egypt Design will coincide with FURNEX, (Egypt's International Furniture and Home Furnishings Trade Fair).

The Furnex Fair, spread over the 21,000 square meters of the Cairo Exhibition & Convention Centre, will host more than 200 Egyptian manufacturer showcasing their latest products of furniture and home furnishings as well as their production capabilities. If you are an architect, designer, importer, chain store, hypermarket, retailer, specialized dealer or a project contractor, then certainly - in its 7th edition - FURNEX 2010 is the market place where your needs will be realized.

+20 Egypt Design is the first urban design event taking place at Cairo and it will encourage people to understand and feel the uniqueness of the design experience, enhancing the potential of Egyptian design both in production and trade/market terms.
